EXAMINER'S STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding independent claims 6 and 41, the prior art of record does not disclose or reasonably suggest a method and system for correcting an audio level by discarding time intervals with high and low loudnesses for a retrieved program asset having audio encoded at a first loudness setting, where dialog is identified from time intervals with intermediate loudnesses. While it may be generally known to discard high and low values in a histogram to obtain more reliable sampling data, the prior art of record does not disclose or reasonably suggest a histogram of audio loudness levels for correcting an audio level from a television due to unexpected volume changes when a program switches to a commercial, where a dialog is identified from an intermediate loudness.

Regarding independent claims 7 and 42, the prior art of record does not disclose or reasonably suggest a method and system for correcting an audio level by identifying time intervals with intermediate loudnesses by creating a histogram of the loudnesses for a retrieved program asset having audio encoded at a first loudness setting. While it may be generally known to create a histogram of sampling values for analyzing speech, the prior art of record does not disclose or reasonably suggest a histogram of audio loudness levels for correcting an audio level from a television due to unexpected volume changes when a program switches to a commercial, where time intervals of intermediate loudness are identified.

Regarding independent claim 27, the prior art of record does not disclose or reasonably suggest a method of identifying time intervals with high, intermediate, and low loudnesses by creating a histogram for a retrieved program comprising audio with an encoded DIALNORM setting.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
